JURY DISREGARDED. Officials Named for Removal Complain-Justice Ford Saw Nothing Wrong

orrespondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] Newpour Naws, April 15, -Judge Peck adjourned his court last night without acting on the recommendations of the grand jury concerning the removal of officials charged with wrongdoing. His failure to do so is sharply criticised here. At the term of the County Court immediately preceding that which adjourned last evening Judge Peck empanelled a special grand jury and sent it to its room with grand jury and sent it to its room with iron-clad instructions concerning the punishment of violators of the law. A number of indictments were returned against salcon-keepers who were selling layer without licenses and keepers of frambling, and bawdy-houses, but no attention was paid to the recommendations of the jurors. At any rate nothing was done. About that time a meeting, in which a number of prominent critzons and nearly all the ministers of the city took part, was beld, and a committee was appointed to call upon Judge Peek and find out what he intended to do concerning the reckless violations of law which were known to exist.

ONLY TARDINESS.

CALLY TARDINESS.

The Judge assured the committee that the evildoers would be checked in their wild career.

Judge Peek is a gord man, but his tardiness in the enforcement of the law causes him to be held responsible for the present deplorable condition of things.

COMPLAINTS.

Every Justice of the Peace named in the late grand jury's report as a proper person for removal from office called on the Disparch reporter last evening. All but Justice Ford had a complaint to make. John Sinciair, who lives in Rocketts, said that the Disparch's report might convey the impression that he was charged with malefeasance, which was not the case. Mr. Sinclair wanted a correction. The next caller was Mr. J. B. Mirable, who was out of sorts because the Disparch didn't designate the ohence charged against each man complained of. SAW NOTHING WHONG.

Justice Ford was the last caller and showed his good sense by stating that he saw nothing wrong with the report as given in the Disparch. In order, however, that justice may be done all around, I give verbatim extracts from the grand jury's report. Here they are: PAILED TO MAKE REPORTS

"Upon examination of J. B. Marable's reports as Justice of the Peace of Warwick county we find that he has not made monthly reports for three consecutive months—January, February, and March—as required by law. For this and other charges that have been preferred against J. B. Marable, we the grand jury, recommend and pray the court that he be removed from office at once. We also find that he is guilty of gross irregularity and insconduct in making false reports.

"We also find that he made his report on April 7th for three months—January, February and March—after he had been indeted and after his papers had been turned in to the grand jury."

The charge against Justice Ford is that "on many warrants costs were imposed without fine and in some cases where the prisoner pleaded guity" he was turned loose upon payment of the costs.

John Sinclair's removal is recommended on the ground of incompetency and for using profane language during the sessions of his court.

Some of these distinguished visitors are ex-Union soldiers, while some are the sons of ex-Union soldiers, and the lively interest which they manifest in the people and the church in lower Stafford county has grown out of an abiding memory of the old "White-Oak" camp-grounds and varied war experiences among the people where nearly thirty years ago. Mrs. Luoy Preston Beale, who has been on a visit to Mrs. R. L. Parrish, is one of the lady managers of the World's Fair. She claims that it is due to her efforts on behalf of a down-trodden sex that Virginia husbands are to have any place at the World's Fair. There were established dermitories for working-girls, for women clerks, for school-teachers; finally nurseries for children, but no provision made for the safe-keeping of husbands until she asked the question. "What are we to do with our husbands?" Since then the family dormitory has been established, where all husbands will be considered as equals.

Mrs. Beale has in her possession for display in the Virginia eghibit the original pipe of peace smoked by John Smith and Powhatan. It is accompanied by a list of the names of the persons through whose hands it has passed, and is beyond doubt the original. It will be for sale at the conclusion of the fair.

ASSUMED THE LOSS.

Rev. Dr. J. W. Rosebro, pastor of the Tapb-Street Presbyterian church, who was so far imposed upon by the swindler Blair as to introduce the latter at the National Bank, has very promptly and generously assumed the loss sustained by the bank in cashing Blair's fraudulent draft and has paid a portion of the amount. It is understood that Dr. Rosebro was informed by the bank officials that he could not be held legally for the loss, but the Doctor felt under the circumstances, though he was an innocent sufferer, that he was morally bound, and, therefore, in sisted on assuming the obligation. The draft was for $600, of which $400 was paid to Blair in money and $200 in a check on New York, payment of which was stopped. But it is expected that Blair has had this check cashed long before this. Such is the indignation felt here against this man that many people would like to tar and feather him or swing him to a rope. THE PETERSBURGS AND BOSTONS.

The Petersburg Base-Ball Club and its friends in the community are more than satisfied with the result of the two matchgames played on Thursday and Friday with the Bostons, the champion club of the country. It is almost needless to say that the Bostonians were greatly surprised to encounter at a small city in the South a club so well organized and skilful. The champions doubtless thought they would meet a "scrub nine" which would hardly afford them amusement, but of this idea they were very soon relieved, and were quickly put to their best even to win a game. To lose a game with an amateur club and to follow this up with the loss of a second game would cast such ridicule upon the champions as to make them lose preatize, and they played their best to save themselves, with the result of only one run in each game.

In seventeen out of the eighteen innings of the two games the Bostons only won two runs—one on an error and the other on a scratch. In the field there was apparently but little difference in the admirable playing of the two clubs. The two pitchers were about equally skilful. Some of the Bostonians say that they have not anywhere met a finer club, than the Petersburgs. They want to come and play two more games here, and have requested the Petersburgs to powith them to Norfolk and give an exhibition game next Saturday. Our local club have received to day several telegraphic congratulations from southern clubs on their good record in the games with the champions.

Ex-Speaker Marshall Hanger, who is being urged for the appointment of Consul to Bermuda, is out on thestreets again after a protracted illness of inter-vittent faver.

"Among the President's callers to-day were Representatives O'Ferrall and Swanson, who introduced to the Chief Executive Mr. A. J. Montague, of Danville, who has the endorsoment of the delegation for the attorneyable of the Western District. Mr. Montague had not before been presented to Mr. Cloveland. He was an enthusiastic Cleveland man last year when delegates were elected, and in the face of the fact that most of the Democrats in the Fifth District were anti-Cleveland."

This is certainly news in December 1. mittent fever.

Hon, John Randolph Tucker was in Washington a few days ago and called on Mr. Secretary Gresham in the interest of Major Hanger.

anti-Cleveland."

This is certainly news in Danville to those who were thickest in the fight for Mr. Cleveland last spring.

Information also reached this city today from the very highest source that it is being claimed in Washington that Mr. Montague was an "original Cleveland man" and led Cleveland's forces in Danville during the canvass for the presidential nomination. Some of the Cleveland workers of this city are especially outraged at this report, as nothing could be further from the truth, and they are curious to know from what source such statements could have emanated.

Judge Berryman Green issued the call for and organized the Cleveland Club of Danville and vicinity in March, 1892. Though solicited Mr. Montague would never join this club, founded on the lines of all other such clubs in this and other States, being designed to include all Democrats in sympathy with Mr. Cleveland's individual views and purposes, even if they were doubtful of his availability, which was to be determined by sagasious men when they got to Chicago. The delegates to be sent from Danville were to be usen of Cleveland preferences, but uninstructed. Such were the club's published manifestoes.

The gentleman who enrolled nearly all the members of this club and who has the roll, as well as many others, can testify

Cards are out for the approaching marriage of Mrs. Elizabeth Dennison Allen, of this city, to Rev. James Henry Williams, of Nashville, The wedding will take place Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in Trinity church in this city.

The bride is a lovely young matron of graceful and winning manners, and the groom, who was recently the rector of a fashionable Episcopal church in Lyuchburg, now has charge of one of the leading churches in Nashville.

A recent report of the Second Presbyterian church shows that its pastor, the Rev. William Cumming, is rapidly building up his congregation. There have been 120 additions to this church in the past year, eighty of whom were admitted upon examination. The net increase in membership is from 204 to 209, the Sunday school having grown from 125 to 223. The Christian-Endeavor Society of this church has determined to build at once a chapel on South Sear's Hill, a growing suburb of this city.

Mrs. Frank E. Smith is visiting her parents at Windsor.

The gentieman who enrolled nearly all the members of this club and who has the roll, as well as many others, can testify that Mr. Montague stated repeatedly during the contest that he was not a Cleveland man, and the unprecedented struggle in this city to send delegates to Richmond favorable to Mr. Cleveland and what he stood for received from Mr. Montague not the slightest aid or comfort. In fact, he was invited and expected to speak at the famous opposition meeting, which came so near becoming a scene of violence. which came so near becoming a scene or violence.

The leadership of Judge Berryman Green at the cost of personal friendships is so notorious that our whole population, including anti-Cleveland leaders, will teatify to it as an act of justice to him.

The undersigned have no idea that Mr. Montague himself is responsible for such reports or that he will accept or profit by them in this race for the attorneyship, for which Judge Green also is being urged by his triends, and as earnest supporters of the latter for that office they desire, in common justice to him, to make the above statement through your columns.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 15.—A colored boy met with a painful accident this afternoon in a very peculiar manner. He was standing near an empty whiskey-barrel in front of a store, when some one dropped a lighted match into the barrel, causing it to explode, a piece striking the boy in the face and causing a serious and painful injury. The report caused by the explosion was heard several blocks away. The boy's escape from death was quite remarkable. Fieces of the barrel were thrown a distance of 200 feet.
